

Certificate in Economic Justice & Advocacy 10 Hours

FHSU Students who plan to work in business, human resources, or social services including volunteer positions with victims of gender-based violence require both a foundational knowledge of victim advocacy and strong written communication skills. Completing this certificate will benefit you and your ability to advocate for victims through economic advocacy and equity through enrollment in the following 10 credit hours of classes. To obtain a Certificate in Economic Justice & Advocacy, students must complete the courses outlined below, and submit the “Intent to Complete a Certificate” form on the right side of the page to the Department of Applied Business Studies.

Required Courses:

- CRJ 367 Victim Advocacy
- BCOM 210 Introduction to Professional Development
- CRJ 100 Workshop in Economic Justice & Advocacy for Victims of Gender-based Violence (1 Hour)

Choose One of the Following:

- SOC 664 Social Entrepreneurship and Grassroots Social Action
- SOC 680 Nonprofit Organizations

No grade lower than a “C” is acceptable for the classes taken. All courses applied toward the certificate must be taken for credit, and cannot be counted toward more than one certificate.

Upon completion of certificate requirements, you should receive your certificate in the mail approximately 2-4 weeks from the date of approval.
