INSTRUCTIONS FOR TEACHING MAJORS

Initial Program Admission

Important information is found at:

<https://www.fhsu.edu/cert/initial-program-admissions/>

Specifically, admission requirements, application deadlines, application links, Important Disclosures on Licensure Reciprocity and Praxis Performance Assessment for Teachers that details the difference between degree completion, program completion, and state licensure.

Application to Teacher Education

Information for all FHSU admission policies, applications materials, the layout policy, and Kansas Department of Education application and procedures can be found at:

<http://www.fhsu.edu/cert/>

For information, instructions, and links for the Application to Teacher Education, please go to the following website:

<https://www.fhsu.edu/cert/initial-program-admissions/index>

Admission to Teacher Education is not based solely on the above criteria. Other factors such as a history of repeated course(s), dispositions, etc. will also be considered.

Students must be admitted to Teacher Education before taking HIST 479, TEEL 431, and TESS 494, and TESS 496.

The “Application for Student Teaching”

The Application for Student Teaching must be filed through the FHSU Application for Student Teaching link found at:

<https://www.fhsu.edu/cert/initial-program-admissions/index>

Priority deadlines are February 15 (application available beginning January 1) for fall semester student teaching and September 15 (application available beginning August 1) for spring semester student teaching.

Applications received after the deadline must include an explanation regarding the lateness and will be reviewed by the COPTSP Follow-up and Placement Committee. Applications received after the deadline are not guaranteed a placement in the requested semester.

Requirements for admission to student teaching can be found at:

<https://www.fhsu.edu/cert/admission-to-student-teaching/index>

The Principles of Learning and Teaching (PLT) exam was discontinued Sept 12, 2023. The Subject Area Assessment (Praxis II) exam is not needed for student teaching, but a passing score on this exam is required for a Kansas teaching license. To register for the Praxis II exam go to www.ets.org/praxis. Teaching licenses are issued by the Kansas State Department of Education.
