

Residential Life 2024 Summer Housing Contract Terms and Conditions

The following constitutes the Fort Hays State University housing contract. The housing services described in this contract are being offered under the terms and conditions stated herein. This contract becomes valid by completing and signing the Housing Contract. Completion and submission of the form indicates that the resident has read, understood, and agreed to all the terms and conditions of this contract. By signing this contract I give Residential Life permission to text me important or emergency messages. Message and data rates may apply. I may choose to opt- out at any time by contacting the Residential Life Office at srl@fhsu.edu.

1. Eligibility

The resident must be enrolled at Fort Hays State University or be determined to be eligible to reside in student housing by the Director of Residential Life or appropriate Fort Hays State University authority.

2. Contract Length

This contract is for the summer 2024 term. Those wishing to stay during the fall, winter, or spring will be required to complete a new housing contract for that term.

3. University Agrees

Fort Hays State University agrees to furnish housing in the residence halls under the terms and conditions herein stated. The university will provide a single bed, chest of drawers, desk and chair, closet space, electricity, gas, water, internet and trash removal. Residents are prohibited from reprogramming the thermostat within their living spaces. Wooster Place Apartments are not furnished by the university.

4. Resident Agrees

Resident agrees to make payment of all fees, to observe all rules, policies, regulations, and restrictions of Fort Hays State University, and to follow any and all applicable public health guidelines, orders, and directives, all of which are by reference a part of this contract, and to honor the terms and conditions stated in this contract. Furthermore, resident agrees to abide by all local, state and federal laws. Failure to do so may result in disciplinary action up to and including eviction from university housing, or termination of this agreement by FHSU. Disciplinary action may also be taken by the university in accordance with the Student Code of Conduct and other university policies, which Resident agrees to comply with.

5. Assignment Policy

Fort Hays State University will not discriminate in room or building assignment on the basis of race, color, religion, sexual orientation, national origin, veteran status or ancestry. The university reserves the right to place limits on the number of residents to be reassigned in order to maximize space for new residents. Failure to honor assignment preferences will not void this contract. The university reserves the right to change room or building assignments, to assign or reassign roommates, or to consolidate vacancies.

6. Payment Schedule and Practices

A. Housing charge due dates are set according to Student Fiscal Services' policy. Specific amounts and due dates are listed on the student's Workday Account. Financial aid recipients will have the available funds disbursed first towards tuition and fees, then towards housing charges for the term.

B. An administrative fee is assessed each time a payment due date has been missed until the balance has been satisfied.

C. In the event that the resident fails to make payment by the delinquency date, the university may declare the contract terminated and may take possession of the premises by any lawful means. Upon the university declaring that the contract is terminated, the resident will immediately surrender possession of the apartment to the university.

D. Resident agrees to pay all Fort Hays State University debts and charges pursuant to FHSU policies. Resident understands that the university is advancing value to them in the form of educational services and that their right to reside in university housing is expressly conditioned upon their agreement to pay the costs of room and any additional costs when those charges become due. Resident understands the university notifies students of debts by their Fort Hays State University e-mail account. It is the resident's responsibility to view charges in their student account through Workday.

E. Resident understands that past-due student accounts will result in university enrollment, transcript and/or services being withheld in accordance with university regulations. Delinquent debts may be reported to a credit bureau and referred to collection agencies, or litigated. Resident agrees to pay costs of collecting unpaid charges, including attorney fees and court costs. This agreement (Residential Life Terms and Conditions Residence Hall Contract) shall be construed in accordance with Kansas law and any lawsuit arising out of this agreement is subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Ellis County District Court in Hays, Kansas.

7. Housing Scholarship Program

Housing scholarships are awarded on a semester-by-semester basis. Housing scholarship(s) will be prorated when a resident is exercising contract termination under Section 15, Termination of Contract. Housing scholarship amounts cannot exceed the amount owed. All housing scholarship amounts are subject to change without notice by Fort Hays State University. If the resident's financial situation changes, Fort Hays State University will not be able to reduce the resident's contract amount. The returner scholarship is not available for the Summer term.

8. Damages and Costs

The resident agrees to pay the university for any damages, lost property, or service costs incurred through accident, neglect, or intent. When more than one resident occupies the same room and responsibility for damage or loss in the room cannot be ascertained by the university, the cost of damage or loss will be divided and assessed equally between the residents of the room. In cases of loss, damage, or unnecessary service costs to common areas of the building, defined as those areas not assigned to an individual, the cost of repair, replacement and/or service may be assessed to each resident on a prorated basis. Resident has 45 days after date of check-out to appeal damage charges. Appeals must be made in writing to srl@fhsu.edu. Estimated damage costs can be found on the Residential Life web page.

9. Vacating

The resident will vacate their room within twenty-four (24) hours after termination of this agreement, loss of student status, after their final examination of the semester, or according to the occupancy schedule, whichever occurs earliest. The university reserves the right to administratively remove any resident immediately if, in the judgment of the university, a resident's behavior will have an effect on their own the health or safety or the health or safety of others. Any resident who does not vacate by the deadline will be charged accordingly and face the disciplinary process.

10. Check-in and Check-out

Upon moving into their assigned room, the resident will complete, sign, and return the Room Condition Report to their Resident Assistant. The Room Condition Report will be an accurate and complete record of the contents and condition of the assigned room and will be the basis for room damage charges if assessed. When vacating the room, the resident agrees to follow established check-out procedures. This includes removing waste and debris and leaving the room in an acceptable, clean condition, and returning room key(s). Failure to follow established check-out procedures may result in the assessment of a $50 improper checkout fee and additional damage charges. Any personal property left at the end of the contract term will be removed from the room and disposed of according to practices, procedures or policies of the university. Fort Hays State University officers, employees, and agents shall not be responsible for any personal property not removed from the room by the resident.

11. Entry by Staff

University officials reserve the right to enter and inspect university housing units at any time. Inspections are conducted to protect and maintain the property of the university, ensure the health and safety of its residents, or whenever necessary to aid in the basic responsibility of the university regarding discipline and maintenance of an educational atmosphere. In such cases, effort will be made to notify the resident(s) in advance and to have resident(s) present at the time of entry.

12. Guests

Residents are responsible for the actions of their guests. Guests are to abide by university policies and be escorted at all times. Overnight guests are not permitted during the summer term.

13. Termination of Contract and Acknowledgment

Termination of an FHSU Housing Contract falls under one of three categories. If the reason for cancellation does not meet one of those outlined in either Section A or Section B, the resident will be held responsible for full or partial payment of the housing contract, including their meal plan, as described in the table above. Students that have been out of high school for less than one year are required to live in university housing.

A. Cancellation by Student: If the contract is terminated for good cause, as determined by the University, the student shall have housing charges adjusted on a prorated daily basis. No termination fee shall apply.

B. Cancellation by University: The University may terminate the housing contract under the conditions stated in the circumstances identified below. In each case, the resident will be responsible for full or partial payment of the contract.

(1) The Office of Residential Life may terminate the housing contract with appropriate notice if the resident is found to have violated any university rules, policies, regulations, or restrictions.

(2) If a resident fails to comply with any portion of the housing contract, the Office of Residential Life may terminate the contract with appropriate notice.

(3) The housing contract is automatically terminated if the resident is ineligible to return to the University for Disciplinary Reasons.

(4) The university reserves the right to administratively remove any resident immediately if, in the judgment of the university, a resident's behavior will have an effect on their own health or safety or that of others.

(5) The university reserves the right to terminate or suspend the housing contact due to COVID-19 (or other pandemic) related causes or impacts, and to take other measures in response to such causes or impacts. Residents understand that there are various risks and factors beyond the control of the university relating to the current public health situation, and campus operations and services may be severely limited or disrupted for periods of time. Students are voluntarily assuming these risks and acknowledging these factors, and agree to comply with all related public health guidelines and restrictions.

C. Any outstanding charges will continue to accrue until the official contract termination, approved check-out and completion of the damage assessment.

14. Contract Assignment

This contract is not transferable and shall not be assigned by the resident.

15. Information Disclosure

Residents must fill out the Student Privacy Request Form in the Office of the Registrar if they do not want any of their personal information such as telephone number or address disclosed.

16. Hold Harmless Clause

The resident agrees to hold harmless Fort Hays State University and officers, employees, and agents from, and to indemnify them for any claims for damages, including claims for negligence, as a result of property damage, bodily injury, illness, or death of the resident from any cause, or any other person as a result of actions or inactions of the resident. Fort Hays State University is not liable for property belonging to the resident which may be lost, stolen, or damaged in any way wherever this may occur on the premises.

17. Contract Changes

Changes may not be made in the terms and conditions of this agreement without the agreement and written permission of an appropriate university official.

19. Furniture

All university provided furniture that is located in the assigned room or apartment must stay within the room for the entire year. Residential Life will not provide storage for furniture and any furniture that is missing upon checkout will be charged for accordingly.

FHSU Diversity Statement

Acknowledge: We acknowledge the diversity of our community and the many forms that diversity can take, including, but not limited to race, ethnicity, national origin, gender identity, sexual orientation, socioeconomic status, religious beliefs and customs, political affiliation, age, sex, and ability. We likewise acknowledge the invaluable importance of such diversity in our academic and residential settings.

Learn and Develop: As a community, we develop an understanding of each other's differences and realization of similarities, because understanding is the first step towards equity. We learn that these differences do not undermine our ability to work, study, and live together. We develop this understanding through the fostering of respectful and thoughtful conversation and creative and collaborative programming.

Live: We live the values of diversity and inclusion as an extension of the Department of Residential Life mission statement. Our existence is for the development and support of ALL students. Discrimination of any form will be corrected through the philosophy of restorative justice with an emphasis on expanding wellbeing of the community at large. We endeavor to walk with our residents on this journey and together be forward thinking and work ready.
