

A WEEKLY ROUNDUP OF GOOD NEWS ABOUT THE TIGER FAMILY

FORT HAYS STATE UNIVERSITY tigerweekly

FROM THE OFFICE OF UNIVERSITY RELATIONS AND MARKETING

January 28, 2022

Top Stories

FHSU ONLINE AMONG THE BEST IN THE NATION

01/25/22

Fort Hays State University is celebrating its 111th anniversary of distance learning as one of the best online programs in the nation.

FORT HAYS STATE BACK ON THE ROAD FOR ANNUAL SRP TOUR

01/26/22

Jon Armstrong always looks forward to Fort Hays State University's Student Recognition Programs (SRPs). But he is especially anticipating getting back on the road for the annual Tiger Road Show this year.

Accomplishments and Happenings

BOOK REVIEW

01/27/22

Raymond Wilson, former chair of the Department of History and professor emeritus, reviewed They Met At Wounded Knee: The Eastmans' Story by Gretchen Cassel Eick, published in South Dakota History. Ohiyesa and Elaine Goodale Eastman were well-known authors and Indian reformers. Wilson evaluates Eick's treatment of their controversial bi-racial marriage and certain diversity issues the couple faced.

DISCUS THROWING, MULTI-DISCIPLINARY MECHANICAL APPLICATIONS

01/27/22

Andreas Maheras, FHSU assistant track and field coach, has an article published in the February issue of Techniques for Track and Field and Cross Country Magazine. The article presents kinesiological and physics principles and how they apply to discus throwing in the quest for a more effective execution of the discus technique.

FHSU CRIMINAL JUSTICE PROFESSOR TO SERVE ON SEDGWICK COUNTY TASKFORCE

01/27/22

As the vice-chair of the Kansas Advisory Group on Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, Dr. April Terry has been asked to serve on the Sedgwick County Department of Corrections Taskforce to review the death of youth Cedric Lofton. The goal of the taskforce will be to identify any issues or concerns and to develop recommendations for (juvenile justice) system improvements and changes to standards or practices. Dr. Terry is an assistant professor in the Department of Criminal Justice.

POSTCARDS FROM THE SIEGE: MESSAGES FROM THE BESIEGED CITY OF LENINGRAD

01/27/22

Dr. Amber Nickell, assistant professor of history, is part of a team of international scholarly experts working directly with the Blavatnik archives on a project titled "Postcards from the Siege: Messages from the Besieged City of Leningrad." The team was awarded $100,000 as part of the 2022 National Endowment for the Humanities "Digital Projects for the Public Grant."

Heart of a Tiger

A PROMISING YEAR AHEAD AT FORT HAYS STATE

01/27/22

For me, this year in particular signals surges of hopefulness and confidence in our students and the future of Fort Hays State University. That confidence is fueled by the resiliency of our students and the determination of our hardworking faculty and staff.

Do you have good news to share? Use our Submit News form.

To subscribe or unsubscribe to the Tiger Weekly newsletter, click here.

Office of University Relations and Marketing, Hammond Hall 785-628-4206 FHSUNews@fhsu.edu