FHSU'S DOCKING INSTITUTE RELEASES KANSAS SPEAKS SURVEY

10/25/22

The Docking Institute of Public Policy recently released the annual Kansas Speaks Survey of public opinion. A panel of 520 adult residents of Kansans age 18 and older were surveyed online to assess their attitudes and opinions regarding various issues of interest to Kansas citizens.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS TO COMPETE IN FHSU MATH RELAYS

10/26/22

Fort Hays State University's Math and Computer Science departments will host the 42nd annual Math Relays on Nov.10 in the Memorial Union. Students in grades nine through 12 will compete in a maximum of six tests throughout the day. The six tests are number sense, trigonometry, algebra, geometry, applications, and calculations with calculators.

UNDEFEATED: JOHN WAYNE'S CONFEDERATE-YANKEE ADVENTURE IN MEXICO AND THE RISE OF POPULIST-CONSERVATISM, 1860S-1960S

07/15/22

Dr. Marco Macias, assistant professor of history, and Dr. Daniel McClure, assistant professor of history, recently coauthored an article in "Film & History: An Interdisciplinary Journal." The article examines the way historical projections work through the John Wayne film, Undefeated (1969). He argues that the film "possesses" the history of the Reconstruction era by rewriting the racial animosity with an eye toward late 1960s critiques of white supremacy by people of color during the "Second Reconstruction" of the Civil Rights era.

MARKET-BASED STRUCTURES AS APPLIED TO NOT-FOR-PROFIT ORGANIZATIONS

10/21/22

Dr. Abeni El-Amin, assistant professor in the Robbins College of Business and Entrepreneurship, co-presented a conference paper at the Kentucky Economic Association 2022 Annual Conference in October. Dr. El-Amin's research provides an analysis of market-based structures as applied to not-for-profit organizations. Her research shows that not-for-profit organizations must compete in the market much like for-profit organizations.

MY EVENING WITH TIGER HALL OF FAMERS

10/28/22

The Tiger Sports Hall of Fame induction ceremony is one of my favorite campus events. This annual event was established in 1986 to honor former Fort Hays State University athletes, coaches, administrators, and community members who have made extraordinary contributions to Tiger athletics.
