PRESIDENT AND DELEGATION RETURN TO CHINA FOR THE FIRST TIME SINCE 2019

6/1/23

President Tisa Mason led a small delegation of FHSU leaders on a whirlwind 13-day trip to China late last month. The first stop on the trip was at Sias University, where the group participated in a homecoming celebration, attended commencement, and visited the Soybean Innovation Center along with a delegation from the Kansas Department of Commerce.

The group then traveled to Shanghai to visit two relatively new international partners, EPIE and Wuxi University. The tour finished at Shenyang Normal University where the delegation joined in a celebration of the 20th anniversary of the FHSU-SNU partnership.
